

J Andrew Spindler - Member of the Board

J Andrew Spindler is the President and CEO of the Financial Services Volunteer Corps, a not-for-profit private-public partnership whose mission is to help build sound banking and financial systems in transition and emerging market countries.

Prior to his appointment in 1993, Mr Spindler served as a Senior Vice President at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, where he headed the Banking Studies and Analysis Function and Payments System Studies staff. While at the New York Fed, he helped develop the risk-based capital framework that has been adopted by bank supervisory authorities in most of the world's financial centres. He represented the New York Fed on the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision from 1991 to 1993. Prior to joining the New York Fed in 1985, Mr Spindler held several international lending and strategic planning positions at the Continental Illinois Bank. He served as a Fellow at The Brookings Institution from 1980 to 1983.

Mr Spindler has a PhD and MPA from Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs and a Bachelor's Degree in International Politics from Harvard University. He is a Member of the Council on Foreign Relations, the Bretton Woods Committee and the Foreign Policy Association.
